| This doumbenoved find Release 2000000000000000000000000000000000000 | -0 | 120 | 1 |
|--|--|---|--------|
| Thirted States within the meaning of DEGLASSIFIED the Haplonage Act, 50, U.S.C. 31 and 32 as emerical. The program u.S. or ARAM. SHANGED Tot trummanisation or the reversation of the contents in any manner to an unanthorized (ENIRAL INTEDUCT). COUNTRY Gormany (Sussian Zeee) CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT Russian Army Rail and Highway Novements in Haple for the Halle and Fotsdam PAGES 1 SUBJECT Russian Army Rail and Highway Novements in Halle for the Halle and Fotsdam PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Salig (1921): On 11 April 1947 a military train survived in Halle first an easterly direction. It was leaded with fire recommensumes care, teenty-one trains, and crows for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the torr, the crows sammed their vehicles and drovs off towerd the circled. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: flockting turrets, length of gum berrets. Ricking survets, length of gum berret approximately 2; seters, eight wheels to a side. White identification lune a white size red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The trains we unleaded in the fraight ward and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagneburg that afternoon. Its load conditated of eight Absertion trains, four Ascrican passenger care, two calculas of herries, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convoy of sixteen American-type ites, each towing a gua, left Halle in the direction of Barlin. The gun had pseumatic throw, gun sheldes, a barrel two maters in length with no muszle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the sheld and below the herrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Helle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and right section between the same type to be a survey the head of the same type. 25 6. Extends (263): On about 20 Hay 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotsdam loaded with engineering equit | This | documento ved For Release 2003/08/93 - 29 A PROPS 2 No 45 7 ROOF 10 6 60001-5 | ? ? |
| DIST | ľ ඉඳිරි≘්ර්ර | a the national defense of the OCHANGE in Class |) |
| and 32 as manned. Its NYHOL U.S. OFFREAN SHADED TO: transmission or the reverlation. of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized ENTRAL INTEGRATE person is prohibited by Zaw. COUNTY Germany (Russian Eose) CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT Russian Army Reil and Highway Hovemants in Belle and Fotadan ORIGIN DIST. ZE July 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Eallg (P92): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halls five an casterly direction. It was leaded with five recommalesance care, twenther one tanks, and crews for these whiches. Upon arrival in the torr the crews manned their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating burrets, length of gus berrel approximately 2 meters, sight wheels to a side. But is identification that a shits star with the real interfor, were observed on the burrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halls from the sest. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagnichury that afternoon. Its lead consisted of eight American trunks, four Ascrican passenger care, two carloads of horrs, and air carleads of porsonnal. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convey of sixteen American type 4 the, each towing a gus, left Halls in the direction of Barlin. The gus had presuments through gus had fourteen wholes, a relative burret, and a gus port index in from of the shield and below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tanks nere assen driving through Helle in the direction of the antifold. One had fourteen wholes, a relative to the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tanks nere assen driving through Helle in the direction of the antifold. One had fourteen wholes, a relative to the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tanks nere assen driving through Helle in the direction of the antifold. One had fourteen wholes, a relative to the berrel. 6. Retedas (263): On shout 20 Hay 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotadan leade | United | States within the meaning of DECLASSIFIED | |
| DDA Memo, 4 25264 TOTAL INTELLIGENCE COUNTRY Germany (Sussian Zene) CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT Russian Army Rail and Highway Novements in Halle and Potedas PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT CORIGIN DIST. MAY JUSTICE RAE Cad D AAF 1. Balle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle fius an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommandance one, insulty-one tunks, and crews for these wehicles. Upon arrivel in the torr, the crows memmed their wehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turvets, length of gun beveal approximately 25 meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification In the direction of Hagdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trunks, four American passenger care, two carloads of herves, and six cericade of personnel. 3. At 1000 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the east. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trunks, four American passenger care, two carloads of herves, and six cericade of personnel. 4. At 0920 hours on 19 April 1947 a convey of extreen American-type 1. Au, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had peases to trong, gun shalding, barred to accept the carload the one meaning 25 meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake, The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried. The first which was the same type as the one described above, oarried. The first which was the same type as the one described above, oarried. The sease and a gun with a suzzle brake, harrel length three meters. 5. Stateday (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotedom loaded with engineering equiyont. Included on the train were fifteen trunks. | tige and . | s amended. Its among H corress CHANGED TO: | |
| or its contents in any manner of CNTRAL INTEGUES person is prohibited CNTRAL INTEGUES person is prohibited CNTRAL INTEGUES person is prohibited CNTRAL INTEGUES COUNTRY Germany (Sussian Zene) CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT Russian Army Rail and Highway Novements in Helle and Fotsdam PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Helle and Fotsdam PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Helle and Fotsdam PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 The train was unloaded in the train are described by source as follows: Rocating burvets, length of gon barrel approximately 2½ seters, eight wheels to a side. White identification Dian a white star with a red interior, were observed on the train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagdeburke that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American though your served on the train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagdeburke that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American though, four hard and presented the presented of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American-type i the, each towing a gus, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gus had presented three, you shields, a barrel two metaers in length with no musule brake, and one resoil of lydinder in front of the shield and blook the burrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tanks were assen driving through Halle in the direction of the circlaid. One had fourteen whose, a restating turnet, and a gun with a susple brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Reieding (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight trein proceeded sestwards from Fotsdam loaded with engineering equity out. Included on the strain were fiftien trucks. Figure 1 1. Helle and Highway Movements and the processed sestwards from Fotsdam loaded with engineering equity out. Included on the strain were fiftien trucks. | transmis | sion or the reverstion DDA Memo | 25 |
| COUNTRY Germany (Euseian Zene) CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT Russian Aray Rail and Highway Novements in Helle and Potedan ORIGIN DISTRIBUTION 1. Supplement 25 ORIGIN 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating burnets, length of gun barvel approximately 2/ meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification like a white a train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey is the direction of Hagisburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American trucks, | | ontents in any manner to Auth: | |
| COUNTRY Gormany (Russian Zone) CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT Russian Aray Rail and Highway Movements in Halle and Potsdam PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Salle (D92): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle five an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommassance care, teatity—one tanks, and arews for these whiches. Upon arrival in the tour, the craws assumed their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Robating turrets, length of gun bered approximately 20 meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification plus a white star with e red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that aftermoon. Its lead consisted of eight American trucks, four-American passenger care, two carleade of hor: se, and nix cerl cade of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convoy of sixteen American-type 1 ks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Bardin with no maxle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and r gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake, The came cay, two further teaks were observed heading toward the serficied. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried to the serficied when the train recoil and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 5. Fatedam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotsdam leaded with engiancering equipped with train proceeded actwards from Fotsdam leaded with engiancering equipped. The land of the care were fifted than the strain were fifted enlar particles. | | | |
| COUNTRY Germany (Russian Zene) CONFIDENTIAL SUBJECT Russian Army Rail and Highway Novements in Halle and Potsdam PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Balle (1992): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle frue an easterly direction. It was lended with fire recommissance care, treaty-one tanks, and cross for these whiches. Upon arrival in the torr, the crows memmed their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rocating turrets, length of gen barrel approximately 22 selects, eight wheels to a side. White identification has a white star with a red interfor, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the east. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagelburg that defension. It lead constanted of eight American trunks, four American passenger care, two carloade of horrow, and aix carloads of personnel. 4. At 0920 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type is seach towing a gun, left falls in the direction of English with ne mussle brake, and one recoil cylindar in front of the shield and below the burrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tents were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and r gun approximately 22 seaters long and equipped with a mussle brake. The same any, two further tomics were observed heading toward the striction. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried train the first winch was the same type as the one described above, carried train proceeded sestwards from rotating worth tracks. 6. Fatedam (acaded with engineering equip cont. Included on the train were fiftion trunks were observed heading toward the striction. The first which were fifting through the power of the collar-packeting equipment. The long were fifting the collar-packeting equipment. | parson r | INTELLIGENCE | |
| SUBJECT Russian Army Rail and Highway Movements in Halle and Potadas PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Salle (D92): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle flux an an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommissance care, temptons tanke, and arrews for these vehicles. Upon arrivel in the town, the crows menned their vehicles and drove off toward the sirfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating burvets, length of gum boved approximately 2 meters, eight wheels to a cide. White identification a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 unother train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagusburg that afternoon. Its load commisted of eight Assarioan trucks, four American passenger care, two carloads of hor is, and air carloads of personnal. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American-type 1 sks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had prematic trees, gun spiciols, a barred tow seters in length with me muscle breaks, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berred. 5. On 25 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Helle in the direction of the sirfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating bursel, and : gun approximately 2 meters long and equipped with a mazzle brake. The same casy, two further tanks were observed heading toward the arriving through Helle in the irrection of the sirfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating bursel, and : gun approximately 2 meters long and equipped with a mazzle brake. The same casy, two further tanks were observed heading toward the arriving through Helle in the irrection of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, included where the same type as the one described above, carried the string through three meters. 5. On 25 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Helle in the irrection of the airfield whenly tw | | 2 | 25 |
| SUBJECT Russian Army Rail and Highway Movements in Halle and Potadas PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 ORIGIN 1. Salle (D92): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle flux an an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommissance care, temptons tanke, and arrews for these vehicles. Upon arrivel in the town, the crows menned their vehicles and drove off toward the sirfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating burvets, length of gum boved approximately 2 meters, eight wheels to a cide. White identification a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 unother train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagusburg that afternoon. Its load commisted of eight Assarioan trucks, four American passenger care, two carloads of hor is, and air carloads of personnal. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American-type 1 sks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had prematic trees, gun spiciols, a barred tow seters in length with me muscle breaks, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berred. 5. On 25 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Helle in the direction of the sirfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating bursel, and : gun approximately 2 meters long and equipped with a mazzle brake. The same casy, two further tanks were observed heading toward the arriving through Helle in the irrection of the sirfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating bursel, and : gun approximately 2 meters long and equipped with a mazzle brake. The same casy, two further tanks were observed heading toward the arriving through Helle in the irrection of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, included where the same type as the one described above, carried the string through three meters. 5. On 25 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Helle in the irrection of the airfield whenly tw |  | AONETDENET SATE | |
| ORIGIN DISTINUTION 1. Halle and Potedam DISTINUTION 2. STATE WAR NAWY JUSTICE RAE CaD AAF 1. Halle (1992): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halls first an easterly direction. It was leaded with five reconscissance care, trenty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews manned their vehicles and drove off toward the strickld. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Blotating turnets, length of gun beveal approximately 22 meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification plus a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halls from the east. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four.American passenger care, two carloads of horrss, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0920 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type 1 ks, such towing a gun, left Walls in the direction of Berlin. The gun had prematic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with ne musale brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Balle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating burret, end 2 gun approximately 2 weters long and equipped with a musule brake. The same cane type as the one described above, carried the second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a Fotating burret, and a gun with a musule brake, barrel length three maters. 6. Ratagen (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded aestwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. The American trains were fiftiven trucks. The same canner was a star on the train. The accessing trains were fiftiven trucks. | COUNTRY | dermany (wassian pone) | 7 |
| Russian Aray Rail and Highway Novements in Helle and Potedam PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 DEST. WE July 1947 PAGES 1 SUPPLEMENT 25 DEST. DUIGN 1. Earling (DSZ): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Helle from an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommissance cars, trenty-one tenks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrivel in the town, the crews menued their vehicles end drove off toward the shrifield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating burrets, length of gun barvel approximately 2½ seters, eight wheels to a side. White identification lulus a white star with a raid interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Helle from the east. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Bagdeburg that afternoon. Its lead consisted of eight American trucks, from American passenger cars, two carloads of hore; and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convoy of sixteen American type 1 April 1948, asoh towing a gun, left Helle in the direction of Barlin. The gun had prementic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with ne muszle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the chield and below the burrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tanks were seen driving through Helle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and : gun approximately? Health and twenty-two wheels (including twelve begine), a rotating turret, which was the same type as the one described above, carried The seme cay, two further tanks were observed beading toward the sirfield. The firet which were fifteen trucks two wheels (including twelve begine), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muszle brake, barrel length three meture. 6. Foteday (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded sestwards from Potedaus loaded with engineering equity ant. Included on the train trucks wheels (landshing twelve begine), a rotating tur | | | Ţ |
| ORIGIN 25 ORIGIN 1. Halle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle first an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommissance care, teenty-one tunks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrived in the life first an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommissance care, teenty-one tunks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrived in the tort, the crews mensed their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: floating tunrets, length of you bervel approximately 2½ peters, eight wheels to a side. White identification plus a white star with a rad interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey is the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its lead consisted of eight American trucks, from American passenger care, two carloads of hore is, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0920 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type is the, each towing a gus, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gus had presumable three, gus shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and r gun approximately 25 weters long and equipped with a muzzle brake, barrel length threes. The came any, two further tanks were observed beading toward the sirfleid. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried any the second had twenty-two wheels (including traits boggles), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three motors. 6. Retadem (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotodous leaded with anylosed conthetrel. The ancommy of the wore fifteen trucks. 4. Heavy traits and for the | SUBJECT | Russian Army Rail and Highway Movements DIST. ZZ July 1947 | |
| ORIGIN DISTINUTION 1. Halls (192): On 11 April 1947 a nilitary train arrived in Halls firm an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommissance care, teauty-one tanks, and crows for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crows memoral their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun bevel approximately 2½ meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification hus a white ater with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halls from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Halls from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of the consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 090 hours on 19 April 1947 a convey of sixteen American type is ke, each towing a gun, left Halls in the direction of Berlin. The gun had preumatic tires, gun sheldes, a barrel two meters in length with no musuale brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shelded api below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halls in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and a gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a nuzuale brake. The sense cap, two further tanks were observed heading toward the sirfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried The The 25 and a gun with a musule brake, barrel length three meters. 5. Patadem (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded sastwards from Fotsdan loaded with engineering equiptent. Included on the train were fiftbeen trucks 4. Entadem (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded sastwards from Fotsdan loaded with engineering equiptent. Included on the train. 5. Patadem (263): On about 20 May 1 | | in Halle and Potadae | |
| DESILUTION 1. Walle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halls five an eastarly direction. It was leaded with five recommensance cars, tenty-one tanks, and crews for these vahicles. Upon arrival in the tour, the crews assumed their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: flotating turrets, length of gun beveal approximately 2½ meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification luke a white star with a rad interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halls from the east. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Rageleury that afternoon. Its lead consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger ears, two carloade of hories, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American-type i ke, each towing a gun, left Walls in the direction of Berlin. The gun had presumatic tires, gun chickes, a barrel two meters in length with ne muzzle breke, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and y gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle breke, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Ratedam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotscham Londed with onglineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks. 6. Ratedam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotscham Londed with onglineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks. 6. Ratedam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotscham Londed with onglineering equipment. Included on the train. 8. Many trains the support of the freight train. The accessing tower blacks cellar-patches. | | THE EXPLICIT METER APPEARANCE | |
| DISTRIBUTION 1. Halle (1992): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle from an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommaissance cars, teamty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews samed their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating burrets, length of gum beveel approximately 25 meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification ulus a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turreta. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and them continued its journey in the direction of Registery that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger care, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type is ske, each towing a gum, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had pneumatic three, gum schields, a barrel two meters in length with no musule brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the chield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating burret, and r gum approximately 25 meters long and equipped with a muzale brake. The case cay, two further tanks were observed heading toward the sirfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the second had twenty-two wheels (including treive bogles), a rotating burret, and a gum with a muzale brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Retagam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potedian loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen brucks brake. 6. Retagam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potedian loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen brucks brake. | 1 ORIGIN | SUFFLEMENT 2 | 25 |
| 1. Halle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle from an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommaissance care, trenty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews meaned that reshibles and drove off toward the sirfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun barrel approximately 24 meters, eight wheels to a stde. White identification miles a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its lead commisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger care, two carleads of horres, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type is ke, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had presumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle breke, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muszle breke. The came any, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried second had twenty-two wheels (including tweive bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muszle breke, barrel length three meters. 6. Ratadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potedom locded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed eastwards trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed in the second content were lifeted. | ` . | | |
| 1. Halle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle from an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommaissance care, trenty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews meaned that reshibles and drove off toward the sirfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun barrel approximately 24 meters, eight wheels to a stde. White identification miles a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its lead commisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger care, two carleads of horres, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type is ke, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had presumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle breke, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muszle breke. The came any, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried second had twenty-two wheels (including tweive bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muszle breke, barrel length three meters. 6. Ratadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potedom locded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed eastwards trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed in the second content were lifeted. | | | |
| 1. Halle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle from an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommaissance care, trenty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews meaned that reshibles and drove off toward the sirfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun barrel approximately 24 meters, eight wheels to a stde. White identification miles a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its lead commisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger care, two carleads of horres, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type is ke, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had presumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle breke, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muszle breke. The came any, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried second had twenty-two wheels (including tweive bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muszle breke, barrel length three meters. 6. Ratadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potedom locded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed eastwards trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed in the second content were lifeted. | | | |
| 1. Halle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle from an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommaissance care, trenty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews meaned that reshibles and drove off toward the sirfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun barrel approximately 24 meters, eight wheels to a stde. White identification miles a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its lead commisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger care, two carleads of horres, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type is ke, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had presumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle breke, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the berrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muszle breke. The came any, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried second had twenty-two wheels (including tweive bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muszle breke, barrel length three meters. 6. Ratadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potedom locded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed eastwards trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessed in the second content were lifeted. | | | |
| 1. Halle (192): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle from an easterly direction. It was loaded with five reconnaisance care, twenty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the crews manned their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun bavel approximately $\frac{1}{2}$ meters, eight wheals to a side. White identification luke a white star with a rad interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Hagdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger care, two carloads of horres, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convey of sixteen American-type 1 ke, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had prepared to trees, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of further tanks were observed heading toward the afrikeld. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the sacoul had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 5. Catadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eactuards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessering troops were black callar-patches. | DISTINUUTION | | |
| 1. Halle (1992): On 11 April 1947 a military train arrived in Halle from an easterly direction. It was leaded with five recommaissance cars, twenty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrivel in the town, the crews manned their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating burrets, length of gun barrel approximately 2½ meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification | | | _ |
| asterly direction. It was leaded with five reconnaissance cars, Leanty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews manued their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun barrel approximately 2½ meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification ulus a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convey of sixteen American-type is ks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had preumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with ne muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and r gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same cay, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried. The second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Retadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accompanying troops were black cellar-patches. | STATE | WAR NAVY JUSTICE R&E CED AAF | } |
| asterly direction. It was leaded with five reconnaissance cars, Leanty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews manued their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun barrel approximately 2½ meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification ulus a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convey of sixteen American-type is ks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had preumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with ne muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and r gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same cay, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried. The second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Retadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accompanying troops were black cellar-patches. | . | | |
| asterly direction. It was leaded with five reconnaissance cars, Leanty-one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the town, the crews manued their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun barrel approximately 2½ meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification ulus a white star with a red interior, were observed on the turrets. 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convey of sixteen American-type is ks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had preumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with ne muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and r gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same cay, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried. The second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Retadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Fotsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accompanying troops were black cellar-patches. | | | |
| one tanks, and crews for these vehicles. Upon arrival in the towr, the crews manned their vehicles and drove off toward the airfield. 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun berrel approximately 25 seters, eight wheels to a side. White identification | 1. | | |
| 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating twrrets, length of gun beverel approximately 25 meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification | | | |
| 2. The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: Rotating turrets, length of gun berrel approximately 22 meters, eight wheels to a side. White identification | | | |
| At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey is the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of horses, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type is ke, each towing a gum, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had presumatic tires, gum shields, a barrel two meters in length with no musule brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and a gum approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a musule brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which second had twenty-two wheels (including treire bogies), a rotating turret, and a gum with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Petedam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks 4. At 1930 hours on 12 April 1947, the accesserying troops were black callar-patches. | e e e | crews manned their vehicles and drove our cowerd the airitetd. | |
| At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey is the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of horses, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type is ke, each towing a gum, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had presumatic tires, gum shields, a barrel two meters in length with no musule brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and a gum approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a musule brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which second had twenty-two wheels (including treire bogies), a rotating turret, and a gum with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Petedam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks 4. At 1930 hours on 12 April 1947, the accesserying troops were black callar-patches. | 2. | The tanks which were on the train are described by source as follows: | 2 = |
| 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sast. The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0990 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type is ks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had presumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muszle brake. The same any, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muszle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Patadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessarying troops were black cellar-patches. | | | 20 |
| 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the east. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947, a convey of sixteen American-type i ks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had premaatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The seme cay, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Patadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks 6. Retadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train back callar-patches. | | | 25 |
| 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeturg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type 1 ks, each towing a gum, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had preparatic tires, gum shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and? gum approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogles), a rotating turret, and a gum with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Potadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks The second had twenty-two were also on the train. The accommying troops were black cellar-patches. |  | a red interior, were observed on the turreta. | |
| 3. At 1100 hours on 12 April 1947 another train arrived in Halle from the sest. The train was unloaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeturg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carleads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type 1 ks, each towing a gum, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had preparatic tires, gum shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and? gum approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogles), a rotating turret, and a gum with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Potadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks The second had twenty-two were also on the train. The accommying troops were black cellar-patches. | (1 | | |
| The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeturg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type in the six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type in the six carloads of personnel. 5. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type in the six carloads of personnel. 6. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and a gun approximately 2½ maters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, the first which was the same type as the one first which the first which the first was | | | |
| The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and aix carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type in the aix carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type in the account of passenger to two materials with a muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in the direction of Berlin. The gure had passenger the passenger to the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and a gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above. 6. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potadam (Z63): On abo | | | |
| The train was unleaded in the freight yard and then continued its journey in the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and aix carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type in the direction of Berlin. The gure had pneumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above. 6. Potedam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potedam type as the first was the first was the first | | | , |
| the direction of Magdeburg that afternoon. Its load consisted of eight American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American type in the six carbon towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gun had presumatic three, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and a gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried The The The | 3. | | |
| American trucks, four American passenger cars, two carloads of hores, and six carloads of personnel. 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American-type it ks, each towing a gun, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gut had pneumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and a gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried The 25 second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Patadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks Trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accessarying troopt were black cellar-patches. | | | |
| 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American-type 1 kg, each towing a gum, left Helle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had presmatic tires, gum shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gum approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the first which the second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret. 6. Petedam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train wore fifteen trucks trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessenting troops were black cellar-patches. | | | |
| 4. At 0930 hours on 19 April 1947 a convoy of sixteen American-type it is, each towing a gum, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had presentic tires, gum shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gum approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried the second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gum with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks Heavy 25 trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accessesying troops were black cellar-patches. | | | |
| each towing a gum, left Halle in the direction of Berlin. The gum had presumatic tires, gum shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muszle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gum approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried | | | |
| preumatic tires, gun shields, a barrel two meters in length with no muzzle brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and : gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried The 25 second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Potadam (263): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks The accompanying troops were black collar-patches. | ls a | | |
| brake, and one recoil cylinder in front of the shield and below the barrel. 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried The 25 second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potadam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks Heavy 25 trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accompanying troops were black cellar-patches. | ÷ | | |
| 5. On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried | | procuration three, gun enteres, a derret two meters in length with no muscle | |
| of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried | 7 1 | proved provided the transfer of the surate site pares one parter. | |
| of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approximately 2½ meters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried | 5. | On 26 April 1947, two tenks were seen driving through Halle in the direction | |
| further tanks were observed heading toward the airfield. The first which was the same type as the one described above, carried The second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 5. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks Heavy trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The accessarying troops were black cellar-patches. | | of the airfield. One had fourteen wheels, a rotating turret, and ? gun approx | 1- |
| was the same type as the one described above, carried | | mately 25 maters long and equipped with a muzzle brake. The same day, two | |
| second had twenty-two wheels (including twelve bogies), a rotating turret, and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accompanying troops were black cellar-patches. | • | | |
| and a gun with a muzzle brake, barrel length three meters. 6. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accompanying troops were black cellar-patches. | | | 25 |
| 6. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks trucks with large pontoons were also on the train. The accompanying troops were black cellar-patches. | | |) E |
| 6. Potadam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards from Potsdam leaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks Heavy 25 | 1 | G G G G G G G G | ب_ |
| from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks | • | | |
| from Potsdam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train were fifteen trucks | 6. | Potedam (Z63): On about 20 May 1947 a freight train proceeded eastwards | |
| trucks with large pentoons were also on the train. The according troops were black collar-patches. | | from Potedam loaded with engineering equipment. Included on the train | |
| were black cellar-patches. | | | 25 |
| | | Word block callenged there also on the train. The accompanying troops |) E |
| DEFF DEVICE FINITY FINI | | | د2 |
| | | JOEFF DE VILLE FINITE FINITE FINITE | |